

THE CELEBRATE
CLAY COUNTY HISTORY FESTIVAL COMMITTEE
INVITES YOU TO ATTEND THE 2019

CELEBRATE CLAY
COUNTY HISTORY
FESTIVAL

Grab a cool drink and sit a spell!

Enjoy displays & historic building tours, too!

9:00 am (Pre-Festival Event)

State Historical Marker Dedication for the Dr. Applegate House
(Now River Park Inn); 103 S. Magnolia Ave, Green Cove Springs

SCHEDULE

10:00 am

Presentation of Colors by RHS ROTC, Pledge of Allegiance & Festival Opening

10:05 am

Performance by Green Cove Springs Jr. High Musicians

10:30 am

Author Reading, Cracker Gothic by Wanda Duncan

11:00 am

Performance by Coppergate Elementary Musicians

11:30 am

Presentation of Civil War Artifacts by Joseph Lorentzson

Noon

Performance by Charles E. Bennett Elementary Musicians

12:15 pm

Dr. Applegate (A play by Clamour Theatre) - Historic Courthouse, 2nd Floor

12:30 pm

Author Reading, Embedded in Clay, Various Authors

1:00 pm

Music by Orange Park High School Drumline

1:30 pm

J.C. Penney Presentation by John Bowles

2:00 pm

Music and Native American Presentation by All Creations Intertribal

2:30 pm

Fiddler; Music Performance & Festival Closing

Music, presentations and readings take place at center of Historic Triangle Lawn.**

Displays, activities and tours of Old Jail, Archives, TAPS Monument & Museum, 10am-3pm.

Historic 1890 Courthouse 2nd floor courtroom self-guided tours 10-11:30am & 1-2pm only.

Restrooms located on the First Floor of the Historic 1890 Courthouse (ramp entrance)